VOLUNTEER STATE MISSION OFFERING

Each year, the Tennessee Cooperative Baptist Fellowship invites churches and individuals to participate in the Volunteer State Mission Offering (VSMO). This is our opportunity to invest directly in ministries that are transforming lives across Tennessee.

The Volunteer State Mission Offering helps sustain a wide range of initiatives: from rural and urban poverty relief, to refugee and immigrant support and much more. The VSMO also strengthens disaster relief efforts, ensuring that Tennessee CBF can mobilize quickly when crises strike. Every dollar given stays within our state, making the impact both personal and immediate.

Churches of all sizes participate, knowing that our contributions join with others to create a statewide network of hope. Through this collective generosity, Tennessee CBF continues to nurture ministries that embody the love of Christ in practical, meaningful ways.

The invitation is simple: pray, give, and join the work. The Tennessee CBF Volunteer State Mission Offering is more than a fundraiser, it's a partnership in mission, a way for Baptists across the state to stand together and strengthen the witness of Christ in every community.

Please join me and Robin in giving generously to the Voluntary State Mission Offering by using the envelopes located in the pew rack in front of you.

Peace and Hope,

Pastor Lee
