Congregational Hymn No. 627
Victory in Jesus

Reading..... Sybil Brown
We are rooted and grounded in your love.
Just as a plant needs soil and water to survive, we need the nourishment of your love.
Just as a tree plows its roots deeply to the ground, our roots must be found in you, God.
When winds blow and storms threaten, we retreat to the hollow of your hand.
When joy comes and sunshine lingers, we lift our faces to feel the warmth and comfort.
As we walk these days of Lent, may we grow, rooted and grounded in You.

Know Your Deacons

My name is Nathan Kluemper and I'm married to Amy Kluemper who is the director of the Ball Camp Parents Day Out program. We moved to Knoxville in 2006 from Indiana. We have 3 daughters, Chantel (married to Alex), Clara (married to Cristian and our first grandchild, Thomas) and Lyla. Lyla is a Junior at Hardin Valley High School, was a graduate of the Ball Camp PDO, and has been in the BCBC Youth for several years.

I am a Project Manager for Garrett Construction and enjoy all things sports and grilling out. I also serve as the President of Feeding God's Children a local ministry that serves several schools in Appalachia KY, some local in Knoxville and a couple of small villages in Guatemala.

We have been attending BCBC for over 5 years now and were really attracted by how friendly everyone was. We are now members and enjoy calling Ball Camp home.
