"United With Christ"
Romans 6: 1-11
Sermon by Rev. Lee Fox

ORDER OF WORSHIP

FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Musical Prelude Thea Carter

Call to Worship

Leader: We gather today as people from different places, stories, and experiences.

People: Yet we come as one body, united in Christ

Leader: Through Christ's love, we are welcomed into the family of God.

People: Through Christ's grace, we belong to one another.

Leader: When one rejoices, we all rejoice.

People: When one suffers, we all share the burden.

Leader: We are not called to walk this journey alone.

People: God has joined our lives together in faith, hope, and love.

Leader: Christ is our foundation, our peace, and our strength.

People: In Christ, we find our unity and our purpose.

Leader: Let us worship the One who makes us one.

People: With grateful hearts, we praise God together.

MESSAGE FROM PASTOR TINA

Walking Together Through Change

Every church experiences seasons of change. Some arrive with excitement and anticipation. Others come with uncertainty, questions, and even a measure of grief. Change reminds us that the church is not a building, a program, or even a particular leader. The church is God's people, called together by Christ and bound together by love.

As we move through this season of transition, we have an opportunity to remember who we are. We are a community of faith that has worshipped together, served together, celebrated together, and carried one another through difficult days. The same God who has guided us in the past remains faithful today and will continue to lead us into the future.

Transitions invite us to lean more deeply into the life of the church. They call us to pray for one another, to listen with grace, to encourage one another, and to remain committed to the work God has entrusted for us. They remind us that our strength has never rested in any one person, but in Christ, who is the head of the church.

In the weeks ahead, let us choose hope over anxiety, trust over uncertainty, and unity over division. Let us continue to worship, serve, and care for one another. Most importantly, let us trust that God is already at work preparing the next chapter of our shared ministry.

The journey ahead may look different than the one behind us, but we will not walk it alone. Together, guided by the Holy Spirit, and grounded in God's abiding love, we will continue to be the church.
