MESSAGE FROM PASTOR HOLLY

For everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven... Ecclesiastes 3:1

As a lifelong resident of East Tennessee, I have had the privilege of experiencing all the beauty the four seasons have to offer.

The blossoms and new growth of spring, the warmth and vibrant colors of summer, the harvest and changing of colors of fall, and the crisp, somewhat bleakness of winter. Each has its own special kind of beauty, but each also has its purpose in the cycle of life.

The hardest of them actually has the most important job. Fall brings not only the harvest, but the pruning away of what has been used up. While winter, in all its bleakness, brings a much-needed rest and reset to allow the plants to bring forth their best in the coming spring.

As we change seasons as a church, we may each see a different season; some see spring, ready to break through with newness. Some may feel the deep chill of winter, bleak and dark. I pray we as a church remember to allow ourselves to be in the season we are in, to dwell in the knowledge that the God of heaven, the creator of all seasons and life, is here with us. He is taking us through the seasons to grow, bloom, prune, and refresh us. To bring in new life and purpose to us as a church. May we never forget His presence goes before, beside, and behind us in all the seasons of life.
