Reading
We like to believe we can handle life on our own.
If we work hard enough, plan carefully enough, and try a little harder, we can find our own way.
But there are moments when our strength is not enough
When the road is uncertain, the answers are not clear, and we simply do not know what comes next.
And perhaps those moments remind us of something we too easily forget... ...we were never meant to depend only on our own strengths and works.
God is our strength when we are weary.
God is our wisdom when we are uncertain.
God is our peace when we are afraid.
So today, let us let go of the need to control all things
Let’s bring our questions, our worries, our hope, and our lives to God.
Together, we can choose to trust because we know the One who walks with us.
Our help comes from the Lord.
And in God, we place our trust.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

CBF Offering for Global Missions - Throughout September, Ball Camp Baptist Church has a goal of raising $2,000 for CBF’s Offering for Global Missions. This offering supports CBF field personnel serving in the United States and around the world.

Working alongside local churches and community partners, CBF field personnel share the love of Christ by addressing poverty, assisting refugees and immigrants, supporting families, strengthening churches, and helping communities meet local needs.

Special offering envelopes are available in the pews through September 30. If you feel led and are able to give, we invite you to participate. If you are unable to give, please join us in praying for CBF field personnel, their ministries, and the communities they serve.

Church-Wide Sunday School with Dr. Mike Smith
Join us next Sunday, September 27 in the Fellowship Hall at 9:45 AM for another special church-wide Sunday School led by Pastor Mike. We hope everyone will make plans to attend as we learn more about the transition process and come together in prayer and preparation for this important season in the life of Ball Camp Baptist Church.

Deacon Voting – Sunday, September 27
Deacon voting will take place during the worship service next Sunday, September 27. Voting ballots will be included in the bulletin that morning.

Church members will be asked to prayerfully select six members listed on the ballot to serve as deacons. As we prepare for this important decision in the life of our church, we encourage everyone to spend time in prayerful consideration, asking God for wisdom and guidance in choosing those who will serve and lead our congregation.
